Additional information and where to find it

The foregoing is not an offer to sell, nor a solicitation of an offer to buy, shares of any investment company, nor is it a solicitation of any proxy.

In connection with the proposed shell reorganizations and mergers, the acquiring funds will file a prospectus/proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All shareholders are advised to read the prospectus/proxy statement in its entirety when it becomes available, because it will contain important information regarding the acquiring funds, the merging funds, the transaction, fees, expenses, risk considerations, the persons soliciting proxies in connection with the transaction, and the interests of these persons in the transaction and related matters. The prospectus/proxy statement will be mailed to merging fund shareholders once it is declared effective by the Commission. Shareholders may obtain a free copy of the prospectus/proxy statement when available and other documents filed by the acquiring funds with the Commission at the Commission's website at www.sec.gov. Free copies of the prospectus/proxy statement, once available, may also be obtained by writing to the merging funds at Golden Funds, P.O. Box 588, Portland, ME 04112 or by calling 1-800-206-8610, or by writing to the acquiring funds at Wells Fargo Funds, P.O. Box 8266, Boston, MA 02266-8266, or by calling 1-800-222-8222. The merging and acquiring funds also file annual and semi-annual reports and other information with the Commission. You may read and copy any reports, statements, or other information filed by the merging or acquiring funds at the Commission's public reference rooms at Public Reference Section, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549-0213 (duplicating fee required), or you may obtain any such documents from the Commission by mail sent to the above address (duplicating fee required), by phone at 1-800-SEC-0330 (duplicating fee required), by email at publicinfo@sec.gov (duplicating fee required), or by internet at www.sec.gov.

Mutual fund investing involves risks, including the possible loss of principal, and may not be appropriate for all investors. Stock values fluctuate in response to the activities of individual companies and general market and economic conditions. Smaller-company stocks tend to be more volatile and less liquid than those of larger companies. Certain investment strategies tend to increase the total risk of an investment (relative to the broader market). This fund is exposed to foreign investment risk. Consult the fund's prospectus for additional information on these and other risks.

Carefully consider a fund's investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses before investing. For a current prospectus and, if available, a summary prospectus, containing this and other information, visit wellsfargofunds.com. Read it carefully before investing.
